Light the Lamp Ownership Group to Receive Business Leaders of the Year Award from Grayslake Economic Development Commission

Grayslake. The Village of Grayslake's Economic Development Commission (EDC) has unanimously chosen to award the 2021 Business Leaders of the Year award to Bill Hermes, Dave Cavanaugh, & Jeff Sheppard, the ownership group of Light the Lamp Brewery, located at 2 S. Lake St. in Grayslake.

The Business Leader(s) of the Year award is given each year by the EDC to an individual or individuals whose contributions promote economic development in Grayslake.

Hermes, Cavanaugh, & Sheppard have made continued investment in the local economy through the establishment of a local business and the subsequent expansion of that business that resulted in the restoration and enhancement of a vacant historical building in the Village Center downtown area. Their investment has added jobs and created economic activity in the area, increasing the overall vitality of Grayslake's Village Center.

Light the Lamp's ownership group will be recognized at the Grayslake Area Chamber of Commerce's Chamber Board Installation & Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, February 2.
